

Luke Schroeder

201 4th Street SE

| Farley, IA 52046

| (563) 599-6177

|

Luke.Schroeder@grandview.edu

CURRENTLY

Professional Clothier at the Dardis Academy

EDUCATION

Grand View University, Des Moines, IA

Anticipated graduation, spring 2017

Bachelors Degree in Business Management, minor in Marketing

GPA: 3.15

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

Grand View University Bowling Team, 2013-present

Intramural Sports, Grand View University, 2013-present

WORK EXPERIENCE

Bill's Tap, Farley, IA

2006-present (seasonal)

Bartender

- Family run business-started washing dishes in 6th grade
- Functioned as cook and waiter during high school
- Developed time management skills and strong work ethic
- Provide excellent and timely customer skills to restaurant patrons
- Able to provide accurate cash and electronic transactions

CLASSROOM EXPERIENCE

Business Info Systems

- Gained experience working with Microsoft Excel and Access

Speech

- Acquired experience giving speeches to a larger audience

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Scholarship Bowling Tournament at Cobra Lanes, Farley IA

- Oversee and Coordinate the scholarship tournament that annually awards over $1,500 in scholarship money
- Collect donations from several area businesses to help fund the tournament

VOLUNTEER WORK

St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Farley, IA

- Prepared food at the annual parish fish fry
- Served patrons and cleared tables at the annual Thanksgiving breakfast

Bidwell-Riverside Center, Des Moines, IA

- Organized donated clothing and prepared food for the needy
- Cleaned and sorted out their storage facility

Hospice of Dubuque, Iowa

- Each year I help plan and organize for the annual Hospice fish fry at Bill's Tap for that raises over $10,000 each year for the Hospice of Dubuque